

CINCINNATI RAILWAY COMPANY:

AAPRCO 2010 CONVENTION

Dates: September 16-25

Location: Pueblo and Alamosa, Co

Join the Cincinnati Railway Company traveling onboard the Dome car “Observatory” and the sleeper “Birch Grove” as we make our way to Pueblo, Colorado for the 2010 AAPRCO convention. Our trip will originate in Cincinnati and travel behind Amtrak’s Cardinal to Chicago where we will depart on train #3 to travel west to Albuquerque, New Mexico. Once in Albuquerque the special train will be made up. All passengers boarding in Cincinnati must board after 8:00pm at McCullough Yard in Norwood, Ohio on Sunday September 12th. Our staff will be there to greet you and help you with your luggage to your room. Once you’ve gotten settled on board join us at the Bon Voyage party in the Observatory for cocktails and hors d’oeuvres to celebrate the start of the trip. During travel enjoy luxuries such as fresh meals prepared onboard by our accomplished chef, including full beverage and snack service in the afternoons and evenings following dinner.

Rates for this trip are as follows:

The Observatory (Click to view pictures)

Bedroom B-C $5,500 PER PERSON (Based on double occupancy)
